Playwright Interview - Simple Answers

What is Playwright?

Playwright is an automation testing tool used to test web applications.

Why Playwright?

It is fast, reliable, supports multiple browsers, and has auto-waiting.

What are Locators?

Locators are used to identify web elements.

What is Auto Waiting?

Playwright automatically waits until elements are ready.

What is POM?

POM organizes locators and methods into page classes.

What are Fixtures?

Fixtures provide reusable resources to tests.

What is base.extend()?

It adds custom fixtures to Playwright's default test.

What is Browser Context?

An isolated browser session.

What is page.on('dialog')?

Handles alert, confirm, and prompt dialogs.

What is API Testing?

Testing APIs without using the UI.

What is Authentication?

Verifying a user's identity before access.

What is storageState?

Saves login session for reuse.

What is Git?

A version control system.

What is CI/CD?

Automates build, test, and deployment.

What is Jenkins?

A CI/CD automation tool.

What is GitHub Actions?

GitHub's CI/CD workflow service.

What is Pipeline?

Automated build, test, deploy steps.

What is async/await?

Used to handle asynchronous operations.

What is Promise?

Represents the result of an async operation.